Mainstre	eam West	ern literat	ure has oft	n portrayed Black and Latinx characters as one-dimensional sidekicks, exotic, or living	without agency under oppressive circumstances. Mainstrear	n Western litera	ture has also	emphasized i	ndividual achievem	nent and o	competitio	n as noble	hemes. This course seeks to disrupt these two dominant narratives in literature by ex	oloring how young adult novels portray friendship, love, and	community adv	ocacy among	Black and Lat	inx character	rs.
